6. The Story of the Three Little Pigs

Listen to the story of the three little pigs.

Once upon a time there were three little pigs. The three little pigs all decide to build a house. The first little pig builds his house out of straw. A big, bad wolf comes and says, “Little pig, little pig, let me come in.” But the little pig says, “Not by the hair on my chinny chin chin! I will not let you in!”

So the wolf says, “Then I will huff and I will puff and I will blow your house down!”

So the wolf huffs and he puffs and he blows the house down. The first little pig is very frightened and he runs all the way to the second little pig’s house.

The second little pig builds his house out of wood. Again, the wolf comes and says, “Little pigs, little pigs, let me come in.” But the little pigs say, “Not by the hairs on our chinny, chin, chins! We will not let you in!”

So the wolf says, “Then I will huff and I will puff and I will blow your house down!”

So the wolf huffs and he puffs and he huffs and he puffs but he cannot blow the house down!

The third little pig is very clever and he builds his house out of bricks. Again, the wolf comes and says, “Little pigs, little pigs, let me come in.” But the little pigs say, “Not by the hairs on our chinny, chin, chins! We will not let you in!”

So the wolf says, “Then I will huff and I will puff and I will blow your house down!”

So the wolf huffs and he puffs and he huffs and he puffs but he cannot blow the house down!

The big, bad wolf climbs up onto the roof of the house and starts to climb down the chimney. The three little pigs make a big fire in the fireplace. When the wolf comes down the chimney he lands in the hot fire and burns his bottom!

“Ouch! Oww owww owooooh!” says the big, bad wolf.

He jumps up and runs away. He never comes back again. The little pigs live happily ever after, in the little house made of bricks.
