I) THE STORY OF HITCHCOCK

Read and listen to The Story of Hitchcock

Hitchcock is a comedy musical based around the films of legendary film director, Alfred Hitchcock.

The play is set in a film studio where film producer, Louis Beymeyer, is trying to produce a new film. It is very important that his next film is a hit as he has had a series of box office flops. He decides to cast movie stars, Casey Grunt and Grice Keeley, as his leading actors. His only problem is that he doesn’t have a director. He meets Hitch, the runner, and decides to give him a chance to direct a film. He gives them a week to make a movie and tells them it must be a hit or the failing studio will close.

Hitch comes up with various ideas for films (based on real films made by Alfred Hitchcock) and they are acted out by Grice Keeley, Casey Grunt and Eddie the extra. Grice complains that there are not enough good roles for women.

Hitch’s first film plot is ‘The Birds’. In this film a town is attacked by vicious birds. Grice complains that the birds mess up her hair. After acting out the story the actors reject this film.

Hitch’s second idea is ‘Rope’. This film is about two college students committing a murder to prove how clever they are. It takes place at a party and the victim (played by Hitch) is hidden in a trunk in the room where the party takes place. The actors reject this idea, as they think it is too ridiculous.

The next film is called ‘Rear Window’. In this film a photographer, who has broken his leg, watches his neighbours through his window. His neighbours include a ballet dancer, a concert pianist and a lonely lady. One day, he witnesses a murder in a nearby apartment. The actors reject this story because they think it is unbelievable.

The final film Hitch suggests is called ‘Psycho’. This film is a thriller about a man who has a split personality. When a secretary visits his hotel, he stabs her while she is in the shower. He does this dressed as his own mother who had died some time before.

Finally, everybody is happy with their roles and they all agree that ‘Psycho’ will be the big hit that Louis Beymeyer is looking for.

Alfred Joseph Hitchcock was born on (1) ___________. He was raised a strict catholic and was educated at Saint Ignatius College, which was run by Jesuits.

Hitchcock entered the world of film as soon as he finished university. He started as a draftsman for a film studio in London in 1920, and quickly worked his way up to scriptwriter, then art director and assistant director. His directorial debut was ‘The Pleasure Garden’ in 1925.

Hitchcock was married in 1926 to (3) ___________ a film editor. They had a daughter, Patricia Hitchcock.

It was with the film ‘The Lodger’, in 1927, that Hitchcock had his first hit, and was widely noticed as a director. In 1929, Hitchcock directed ‘Blackmail’, which was groundbreaking in its success as the first widely popular non-silent film.

Hitchcock’s had many hits in Britain, such as ‘The Man Who Knew Too Much’ (1934), ‘The 39 Steps’ (1935) and ‘The Lady Vanishes’ (1938). These films brought international notice and, in 1939, Hitchcock moved across the Atlantic.

Hitchcock’s American debut film, ‘Rebecca’ (1940), starred Laurence Olivier and Joan Fontaine and was a huge success. A number of hits followed, perhaps the most famous being ‘Notorious’ (1946), ‘Rear Window’ (1954), ‘Vertigo’ (1958), ‘North by Northwest’ (1959) and, of course, ‘Psycho’ (5 ____________).

Hitchcock liked to use the same actors regularly. This included Cary Grant, James Stewart, Vera Miles, and Grace Kelly. He nearly always appeared in his own films.

Despite being nominated on several occasions, Hitchcock never won (7) ___________ for Best Director, although he did win ‘Best Film ‘in 1940 for ‘Rebecca’.

In 1979, Hitchcock was made a (9) ___________ by the Queen.

Level
Medium

Skills Focus
Writing, speaking

Aim
To allow students to use a variety of question forms.

Notes
Separate the text into two parts. Give students part A or part B equally. Give the students ten minutes to work on the questions either individually or in groups. Then put students into pairs (one part A, one part B) and let them ask and answer the questions to complete the information.

Variation
To make the activity more difficult take away the question words given in the answer. To make the activity easier, add extra words, e.g.
When ---------- Alfred Hitchcock born?

Answers
1. When was Alfred Hitchcock born?
2. What was Alfred Hitchcock’s directorial debut?
3. Who was Alfred Hitchcock married to?
4. What was Hitchcock’s American debut?
5. When was ‘Psycho’ a hit?
6. What was Hitchcock’s final film?
7. What did Hitchcock never win as best director?
8. What did ‘Rebecca’ win at the Oscars?
9. What was Hitchcock awarded by the Queen?
10. When did Hitchcock die?
5) THE QUESTION GAME

Aim
To allow students to use a variety of question forms.

Notes
This is a fun activity based on the game Jeopardy. At the beginning of the class draw the grid with answers on the white/blackboard. Separate the class into groups of five or six and tell them to look at the answers. Give the groups 10–15 minutes to prepare questions for the answers. Each team then takes turns to choose an answer. The question they give must be factually and grammatically correct to win the points. There may be a variety of correct answers, e.g. the answer Hitchcock could produce

   Who is the director?
   or
   Who was a runner?
   or
   Who directed The Birds?

Possible answers
Hitchcock: (see above)
Casey Grunt: Who is the leading actor?
Grice Keeley: Who is the leading actress?
Eddie: Who is the extra?
The Birds: In which film do birds attack people?
Psycho: Which film has a murder in the shower?
Rear Window: In which film does the male character have a broken leg?
Rope: In which film is a body hidden in a trunk?
A Star: What is a successful actor/actress known as?
A Hit: What is a successful film known as?
Props: What are the objects used in a film called?
On Set: Where does the action in a film take place?
6) SONG 1: LIGHTS, CAMERA, ACTION!

Listen to the song and try to fill in the missing words.

LIGHTS, CAMERA, ACTION!

Hollywood ____________ studio contractors,
glitter and glamour and sweat.
There is nothing like drinking a ____________ while you shout at your actors to act
the ____________ are quite hot
I’ve forgotten the plot
I think we might have to recast.

God, I ____________ this one’s it.
Lights, camera and action
together we can ____________ this one soar with lights, camera and action
let’s win all of the ____________ awards.

Now find the correct words from the song.

1. Find 5 irregular verbs. ____________ ____________ ____________ ____________ ____________

2. Find the verb which means to ‘speak very loudly’. ____________

3. Find the synonym for ‘cash’. ____________

4. Find the homophone for ‘won’. ____________

5. Find the antonym for ‘lose’. ____________
6) SONG I: LIGHTS, CAMERA, ACTION!

Teaching notes

Time
30–40 minutes

Level
Medium

Skills Focus
Listening, vocabulary

Aim
To increase vocabulary by becoming familiar with the words to the songs in the play. Also, to heighten the enjoyment of the students when they listen to the songs during the play.

Notes
Give the students a chance to look at the song lyrics and predict what they think the missing words will be before they listen to the music. They can do this either individually or in pairs. Then let them listen to the song at least twice to fill in the gaps. Check the answers together and when everyone has the correct answer the second part of the activity can be done individually, in pairs or as a group activity.

Answers
Hollywood actors, studio contractors, glitter and glamour and sweat.

Read and listen to these descriptions of the characters in Hitchcock. Use the information to help you with the exercise on the next page and then listen to see if your answers are correct.

Hitchcock (Hitch) is a runner in Louis Beymeyer’s film studio. Louis Beymeyer is looking for a new director and when he discovers that Hitch knows how to do everything on a film set he makes him the director of his latest film. Hitch is young and inexperienced but he has lots of good ideas for film scripts. Eventually he finds a script that everyone agrees will be a big hit.

Casey Grunt is a famous movie star. He always plays the lead actor and expects to get the best parts. He often plays the romantic lead opposite Grice.

Grice Keeley is a famous movie actress. She plays the lead actress in her films and is often Casey’s love interest. Grice thinks there should be better roles for women and is bored playing roles that are just about being pretty but not intelligent. Grice insists that the film they do must have an interesting, strong and intelligent role for her.

Louis Bemeyer is an important film producer who runs a big film studio. However, the studio has had a series of films that are flops and have not made any money. He makes Hitch the director and then tells everyone that they have a week to make a film that is a hit or the studio will close.

Eddie is an extra at the film studio. He plays the smaller roles in the film. He takes any roles that are available as long as he is paid for them (except nude scenes).

Write your answers and the relevant sentences from the script, below:

Act One – Intro: The Challenge

Louis  Ok, ok, that’s enough wasting time. We’ve got a film to make. I, Louis Bemeyer, the great Hollywood producer, am a busy man.

Casey  Look, Louis. The last few films you produced were flops.

Louis  Flops?

Grice  Yes, flops. They were complete failures. No one went to see them.

Louis  I know. No one went to see them. They were terrible films.
Casey: Now, if me and Grice are in your film everyone will come to see it. It’ll be a hit.

Louis: Yes, that’s true. A film with Grice Keeley and Casey Grunt, the fabulous Hollywood stars, it’ll be a huge hit. Everyone will come and see it and we’ll make lots and lots of money.

Casey/Grice: Yeah!

Louis: There’s only one problem.

Casey: Problem? What problem? You have a leading actor?

Louis: Yes, you’re my leading actor.

Grice: And you have a leading actress?

Louis: Yes, you’re my leading actress.

Casey: And you have the crew?

Louis: Yes, I have the crew. I have a camera and lights. (Ref on backdrop) I have costume and a make-up. I have everything except—

Grice/Casey: Except?

Louis: Except a director. I don’t have a director! (Pointing to director’s chair which Hitch is dusting.)

Hitch: Hello.

Louis: Who are you?

Hitch: I’m Alfie Hitchcock, the runner. Everyone calls me Hitch.

Louis: What do you do?

Louis: Yeah, yeah, yeah, but can you direct?

Hitch: Well…

Louis: Look. Do you know how to use a camera?

Hitch: Yes. (He shows how with camera) … Camera rolling!

Louis: Do you know how to light a shot?

Hitch: Yes. (He shows how) …and lights!

Louis: Do you know how to cut?

Hitch: Yes. (He shows how) …and cut!

Louis: Do you know how jump up and down and stand on one leg?
Hitch: Erm... (He does it) Yes.

Louis: Ok. You’re hired. Sign here in triplicate. (Louis gets Hitch to sign a contract)

Hitch: Hired? To make a film?

Louis: Yep, to make a film.

Casey: But he’s a runner. He doesn’t know anything about directing.

Grice: But he’s very cute. I like him.

Louis: It’s decided. He’s the director. You’ve got a week to make a film.

ALL: A week?

Louis: Yep, a week. Didn’t I tell you? There’s one other thing I don’t have; money. We’ve got one week to make a great film or the studio closes and you’re all out of a job. So, don’t waste a minute! Lights, camera, action!

Casey: Louis is crazy! This kid can never make a film in a week.

Grice: Hey sweetie, what ideas have you got? I want a big, important role.

Casey: No, I’m the leading actor. My role must be bigger.

Grice: Why? Male actors get all the great roles. What about the actresses. Where are our roles? There should be better roles for women.
9) SYNONYM AND ANTONYM WORDS

Teaching notes

Time
20–30 minutes

Level
Medium

Skills Focus
Listening, reading (possibly speaking)

Aim
To increase vocabulary by not only learning the words used within the play but also to encourage students to think about new words related to them.

Post activity
Ask the students to work with a partner and find five new words from the scene. They should then write the synonym/antonym of the word. Get students to swap words with another pair or present them on the board to the other students. This could be done as a game with students scoring points for correct answers.

Answers
1. cash (S) money
2. first (A) last
3. failure(A) flop
4. rent (S) hire
5. awful (S) terrible
6. movie (S) film
7. organize, clean(S) tidy
8. sane (A) crazy
9. false (A) true
10. good-looking (A) cute
10) TEXT COMPREHENSION – LISTENING 1

Read and listen to scene five. Then answer these questions about the scene.

1. Why don’t the actors like the previous film idea?

2. Why does Grice think the previous story has potential?

3. What roles won’t Eddie do?

4. Why does Hitch say this is ‘my last shot’ about Psycho?

5. Why does Marion rob her boss?

6. How and where does Norman kill Marion?

7. What is strange about Norman’s mother?

8. Who discovers the crime?

(Scene 5 – Psycho)

Hitch  So, what do you think?
All    Rubbish!
Casey I think it’s terrible. It’ll be a flop. A film about a man in a wheelchair who sees a murder and sends his girlfriend to investigate through the Rear Window? Ridiculous. No one will believe it.
Grice  Well at least I got to have a bit of action. We’re getting there, kid!

This activity is designed to be used in conjunction with a performance of IPA Productions’ Hitchcock. For more information, visit www.ipaproductions.com.
Eddie: Yeah, I like playing murderers. But, I don’t want to play any more neighbours!

Casey: This is useless. We’ll never get a film made in a week at this rate.

Hitch: But what’s wrong with my films? Why don’t you like them?

Grice: Not enough strong roles for women.

Eddie: Not enough blood.

Casey: Not enough suspense.

Grice: Not enough action.

Eddie: Not enough violence.

Casey: Not enough psychology.

Hitch: Not enough psychology? What do you mean?

Casey: We need a good psychological thriller with suspense, lots of blood and violence, murder, a bit of love-

Hitch: Psycho.

Grice: I beg your pardon.

Casey: Now, look here, don’t be rude to the lady. I know she is a bit crazy, but-

Hitch: No, Psycho. Psycho. Psycho! It’s the name of a film. But this is my last shot. If you don’t like this, I give up and you can all go to Hell...wood! Are you in? Casey?

Casey: Sure, kid.

Hitch: Grice?

Grice: Sure, honey.

Hitch: Eddie?

Eddie: Sure. “Any role, for a fee, no nude scenes, they’re not for me.” And no birds, no putting me in trunks and no neighbours, either.

Hitch: Okay... here we go...Grice you’re Marion the secretary...playing the boyfriend role is Eddie. You argue, don’t have any money. Marion robs her boss. She packs the car, drives out of town to a spooky old hotel she found. The Bates Motel! She meets Norman who seems at quite a loss! She hears Norman and his mother shout - they’re dysfunctional no doubt! She showers. Norman spies on her and then stabs her to death! A policeman soon arrives and then gets a complete surprise. Norman’s mother is dead! A skeleton’s all that’s left... Get it?

All: No!

To test the students understanding of the scene and the complexities of what is happening within it.

Notes
This activity could be done individually as a simple written comprehension activity or in pairs with students discussing the answer. Encourage students to give as much information as possible to support their answer.

Answers
1. They don’t like the previous film idea because they say it is ridiculous and that no-one will believe it.
2. Grice thinks the previous story has potential because she had some action.
3. Eddie won’t play birds, roles in trunks, neighbours, and no nude scenes.
4. Hitch is frustrated because they have said no to all his previous ideas.
5. Marion robs her boss because she doesn’t have any money.
6. Norman stabs Marion when she is in the shower.
7. He discovers that Norman’s mother is dead.
8. A policeman discovers the crime.
II) TRUE OR FALSE - LISTENING 2

Read and listen to Scene one (see activity nine) Now, decide if the sentences are true (T) or false (F). If they are false correct them with a complete sentence.

1. The last few films were flops because too many people went to see them.  T  F

2. Louis doesn’t have leading actors for his new film.  T  F

3. Louis doesn’t have a director for his new film.  T  F

4. Alfie Hitchcock is a famous director.  T  F

5. Casey Grunt thinks Hitch will make a great director.  T  F

6. Grice Keeley thinks that there should be better roles for women.  T  F
II) TRUE OR FALSE - LISTENING 2

Teaching notes

Time
20–30 minutes

Level
Medium

Skills Focus
Reading, writing, listening, (possibly speaking)

Aim
To test the student’s comprehension of a scene of the play.

Notes
This could be used as an opportunity for the students to work in pairs to discuss the correct answers. The answers could then be presented on the board and the answers discussed and corrected as a group.

Post Activity
Ask the students to look at a different scene in the play and in pairs or small groups to come up with five true or false questions. Then each group should pass their sentences to another group to answer. Answers could be marked together with the whole class.

Answers
1. False – The last few films were flops because no-one went to see them.
2. False – Casey and Grice are the leading actors for his new film.
3. True – Louis doesn’t have a director for his new film.
4. False – Alfie Hitchcock is a runner.
5. False – Casey Grunt thinks Hitch will never be able to make a film in a week.
6. True – Grice Keeley thinks that there should be better roles for women.
12) Homophones

Look at the words below. Now, read and listen to scene one of the play to find the word in the text which has the same sound.

e.g. eight – ate

1. Weak ____________________
2. Sea ____________________
3. No ____________________
4. Wear ____________________
5. Waist ____________________
6. Two ____________________
7. Hear ____________________
8. Four ____________________
9. Roll ____________________
10. Hour ____________________

Now complete these sentences with the correct homophones from the previous activity.

1. Can you ____________________ the bells ringing?
2. Do you ____________________ Anna?
3. Sally is going on holiday for a ____________________.
4. Peter has a very good ____________________ in the play.
5. What shall I ____________________ to work today?

This activity is designed to be used in conjunction with a performance of IPA Productions’ Hitchcock. For more information, visit www.ipaproductions.com.

Skills Focus
Reading, listening and spelling

Aim
To familiarise the students with the sound of words and to encourage them to use the context of the text to work out the meaning of the word.

Notes
This activity could be done individually as a simple vocabulary exercise or in pairs with students discussing the answer.

Post Activity
Ask the students (individually or in pairs) to choose five more words from the list of homophones and write their own sentences. Then let them take turns to present them on the board for their classmates to solve. This could be made into a game with points!

Answers

Part 1
1. weak - week
2. sea – see
3. no - know
4. wear – where
5. waist – waste
6. two – to
7. hear – here

Teaching notes

Time
30–40 minutes

Level
Medium

Skills Focus
Listening, vocabulary

Aim
To increase vocabulary by becoming familiar with the words to the songs in the play. Also, to heighten the enjoyment of the students when they listen to the songs during the play.

Notes
Give the students a chance to go through the song and predict what they think the missing words will be before they listen to the music. They can do this either individually or in pairs. Then let them listen to the song at least twice to fill in the gaps. Check the answers together and when everyone has the correct answer the second part of the activity can be done individually, in pairs or as a group activity.

15) PERFORM THE PLAY

Characters

Casey Grunt
Hitch
Grice Keeley
Eddie

Scene 5 – Psycho

Hitch  But what’s wrong with my film ideas? Why don’t you like them?
Grice  Not enough strong roles for women.
Eddie  Not enough blood.
Casey  Not enough suspense.
Grice  Not enough action.
Eddie  Not enough violence.
Casey  Not enough psychology.
Hitch  Not enough psychology? What do you mean?
Casey  We need a good psychological thriller with suspense, lots of blood and violence, murder, a bit of love-
Hitch  Psycho.
Grice  I beg your pardon.
Casey  Now, look here, don’t be rude to the lady. I know she is a bit crazy, but-
Hitch  No, Psycho. Psycho. Psycho! It’s the name of a film. But this is my last shot If you don’t like this, I give up and you can all go to Hell..ywood! Are you in? Casey?
Casey  Sure, kid.
Hitch  Grice?
Grice  Sure, honey.
Eddie?
Sure. “Any role, for a fee, no nude scenes, they’re not for me.”

(Acting out of Psycho all done very comically)

Okay... here we go... Grice, you’re Marion the secretary... playing the boyfriend role is Eddie. You argue - you don’t have any money. Marion robs her boss. She packs the car, drives out of town to a spooky old hotel that she finds... The Bates Motel! She meets Norman who seems at quite a loss! She hears Norman and his mother shouting. She showers. Norman spies on her and then stabs her to death! A policeman soon arrives and gets a big surprise. Norman’s mother is dead! Get it?

All
No!

Great. Let’s do this thing! Lights, camera, ACTION! (Casey exits to dress as Mother/Norman)

“Sam, I love you. Let’s get married.”

“I love you too, Marion, but I don’t have any money!” (costume)

“Oh no, I’m going to the office to see the boss”

“Here take this $40,000 and put it in the bank, Marion”.

“Ok, boss. I’m gonna steal this money and marry Sam. Bye! Now I’m driving out of town.”

“Look! What is Marion doing driving out of town?”

“Oh, dear my boss saw me driving out of town! I’m going to stop and have a nap. I’m really tired.”

“I’m a suspicious policeman. Why are you sleeping in your car, Miss?”

“Oh, I’m... very... tired! Sorry officer.”

“Drive on, Miss.”

“Oh, look there’s a motel. I will stop for the night.”

“Welcome to the Bates motel.”

”Do you have a room for the night?”

“Yes.

(aside) What a spooky hotel!

Would you like to meet my mother!!!”

“No... thank you... I’m very tired. I’m going to have a shower.”

“Bye,”
Mother/Casey  “Norman, don’t let that woman stay in this house. She is a bad woman!”
Norman  “No, she’s a good woman.” (Bad/good etc)
Marion  “Oh, Norman and his mother are arguing.”
Norman  “Alright mother!”
Marion  “Oh, what a lovely warm shower.”
Nor/Moth  “I will kill you in the shower with my knife.”
Marion  “Agh!”
Norman  “I’ve done it mother! I’ve killed the bad woman.”
Mother  “Good boy Norman.”
Cop/Edi  “Hello. I am a policeman. Excuse me, I am looking for a blonde lady called Marion Crane. Have you seen her?”
Norman  “No!”
Mother  “Yes”
Norman  “Shut up mother!”
Mother  “Shut up yourself!”
Cop  “Get out of my way-Oh, Marion is dead! Oh, your mother is dead!
Norman  “Yes, my mother made me kill Marion. I am a psycho!”
Hitch  Cut! So, what do you think? (pause)
All  Its…great!
Casey  It’s a hit, kid.
Grice  I love it. Especially my role! A baddie at last!
Eddie  Yeah, I get to do loads of great roles!
Hitch  At last. We have a hit. Let’s make a movie. Lights, camera, action!

</tbody>
</table>

In writing your review, remember that you are trying to be persuasive. Plan your review and organise it in this way:

Introduction
Give the title and author and summarize the plot. Offer your general impression of the play.

Paragraph 2
How did the actors portray the main characters? Did they fulfil your expectations? Which performance was the most memorable?

Paragraph 3
Describe a memorable scene and say how it made you feel.

Conclusion
Give your concluding comments and tell the reader why (or why not) to see the play.

Aim
To reinforce the vocabulary of the play and its meaning.

Notes
Give the students the list of vocabulary from the play to look at whilst doing the clueword. All the vocabulary needed can be found within the list. It is a good idea to do the clueword in pairs giving students a chance to discuss their ideas. Alternatively, the clueword could be done as a homework activity. If the students are of a lower level give them the first letter of each work spelling the name of the character.

Extension activity
In pairs, the students choose another character from the play and make up clues which contain the letters in the same style as the clue word below.

Answers
The character is Norman Bates (from Psycho)

19) ONE-LESSON ACTIVITY

I. THE STORY OF HITCHCOCK

Read and listen to ‘The Story of Hitchcock’.

Hitchcock is a comedy musical based around the films of legendary film director, Alfred Hitchcock.

The play is set in a film studio where film producer, Louis Beymeyer, is trying to produce a new film. It is very important that his next film is a hit as he has had a series of box office flops. He decides to cast movie stars, Casey Grunt and Grice Keeley, as his leading actors. His only problem is that he doesn’t have a director. He meets Hitch, the runner, and decides to give him a chance to direct a film. He gives them a week to make a movie and tells them it has to be a hit or else the failing studio will close down.

Hitch comes up with various ideas for films (based on real films made by Alfred Hitchcock) and they are acted out by Grice, Casey and Eddie the extra. Grice complains that there are not enough good roles for women.

Hitch’s first film plot is ‘The Birds’. In this film, a town is attacked by vicious birds. Grice complains that the birds mess up her hair. After acting out the story the actors reject this film.

Hitch’s second idea is ‘Rope’. This film is about two college students committing a murder to prove how clever they are. It takes place at a party and the victim (played by Hitch) is hidden in a trunk in the room where the party takes place. The actors reject this idea, as they think it is too ridiculous.

The next film is called ‘Rear Window’. In this film a photographer, who has broken his leg, watches his neighbours through his window. His neighbours include a ballet dancer, a concert pianist and a lonely lady. One day, he witnesses a murder in a nearby apartment.

The actors reject this story because they think it is unbelievable.

The final film Hitch suggests is called ‘Psycho’. This film is a thriller about a man who has a split personality. When a secretary visits his hotel, he stabs her. She is in the shower. He does this dressed as his own mother who had died some time before.

Finally, everybody is happy with their roles and they all agree that ‘Psycho’ will be the big hit that Louis Beymeyer is looking for.

19) ONE-LESSON ACTIVITY

3. THE CHARACTERS AND WHO SAID THAT

Read and listen to these descriptions of the characters in Hitchcock. Use the information to help you with the exercise on the next page and then listen to see if your answers are correct.

Hitchcock (Hitch) is a runner in Louis Beymeyer’s film studio. Louis Beymeyer is looking for a new director and when he discovers that Hitch knows how to do everything on a film set he makes him the director of his latest film. Hitch is young and inexperienced but he has lots of good ideas for film scripts. Eventually he finds a script that everyone agrees will be a big hit.

Casey Grunt is a famous movie star. He always plays the lead actor and expects to get the best parts. He often plays the romantic lead opposite Grice.

Grice Keeley is a famous movie actress. She plays the lead actress in her films and is often Casey’s love interest. Grice thinks there should be better roles for women and is bored playing roles that are just about being pretty but not intelligent. Grice insists that the film they do must have an interesting, strong and intelligent role for her.

Louis Bemeyer is an important film producer who runs a big film studio. However, the studio has had a series of films that are flops and have not made any money. He makes Hitch the director and then tells everyone that they have a week to make a film that is a hit or the studio will close.

Eddie is an extra at the film studio. He plays the smaller roles in the film. He takes any roles that are available as long as he is paid for them (except nude scenes).

19) ONE-LESSON ACTIVITY

Teaching notes

Time
50–60 minutes

Level
Medium

Skills Focus
Vocabulary, listening, reading, speaking.

Aim
To familiarise the students with the story, songs and vocabulary of Hitchcock before seeing the show.

Instructions
The one lesson activity sheet is designed for teachers who only have time to prepare with one class before the show. We find that students who understand the development of the story and are familiar with some, or all of the songs, enjoy the shows even more! So, we recommend that you begin with reading and discussing the synopsis of the show. Then move on to listening to the song – allow the students to follow the text on the song sheet. If there’s time get them to sing along! Next, move on to the characters and ‘who said that’ activity. Let the students read through the character information. Then let them decide who said which phrase. Finally, listen to the recording and see if they are correct.

Post-show activity
If you have more time after the show, go back and do any of the other activities.

Answers
Who Said That?
1. Lights, camera, action! Hitchcock
2. I don’t have a director! Louis Beymeyer
3. There should be better roles for women. Grice Keeley
4. Any role for a fee! Eddie
5. No, I’m the lead actor my role must be bigger! Casey Grunt
6. I do have an idea for a film where your character is in a wheelchair. Hitchcock
7. Oh great, I get to cry a lot. Grice Keeley
8. Ok, where do you want me? Eddie
9. You’ve got a week to make a film. Louis
10. Don’t you like kissing me? Casey
